THAT the world shall be made brighter and better is the aim of this little book. It is proposed to abandon the A B C of our grandfathers, and to polish up the intellects of the rising generation without it. Surely a world which wants to gain time by teaching solid syllables instead of letters—and there is no doubt about the wisdom of it—should eagerly avail of an article which lightens the drudgery of the household, and by cutting down the time devoted to toil, gives to all classes more opportunity for rest, recreation and study.

1 day in early spring of year. near:
When homes are cleaned both far and
2 Maidens met, their looks would say
That one was grave, the other gay
"3 weeks said one, I've worked to clean -
The masters house, where I have been"
"4 kinds of horrid cleaning stuff"
I've used and still I've not enough
"5 hours each day on wall and floor:
I've worked, until I'm sick and sore"

6 years of service I've seen Kate:
The other maiden then did state:
7 days each week in all that time:
I've used but one to clean and shine
8 other girls, too, I know:
Use nothing but SAPOLIO
9 cakes of which one year does me
Although I use it very free:
10 times the labor you 'twill save
And you'll look gay instead of grave.
